

Punctuality: the essence of life

George Bernard Shaw said, "Better never than late". Indeed, Punctuality is the most important character of all successful people. The student, officials, businessmen and even a lay man all have to observe punctuality in order to win fame and success in life.

For students it is a great blessing. If you are punctual you will get enough time to do your work according to your plan. Everybody likes to work with a punctual person. It may make or destroy your career.

If we look at the lives of great man, we would realize that they had got a set time schedule for everyday.

Even nature is punctual imagine a day when sun rises late, the seasons change haphazardly .....our whole life will be disturbed. Thus nature teaches us to be punctual. If we follow the course of nature strong John A. Widtsoe said "Preparedness and Punctuality are two of the most important qualities of a leader ".

A student should always be punctual. He should have a set time table for everything. We should always remember, "Early to bed, early to rise, makes a person healthy, wealthy and wise.
